

2015 MERRIE MONARCH INVITATIONAL HAWAIIAN ARTS FAIR WORKSHOPS SCHEDULE

NI'HAU WORKSHOP - KELE AND EHU KANAHELE

Make your own Pikake style Ni'ihau shell jewelry taught by Kele and Ehu Kanahele from Ni'ihau.

Workshops will be held for 4 days during the festival.

Cost: Earrings $ 50      Bracelets $ 100      Chokers $200      All supplies included

Contact: Kele Kanahele 987-1859

'OHE KĀPALA WORKSHOP • HAWAIIAN BAMBOO STAMP - H'AMAULIOLA AIONA

Participants will learn how to prepare an 'ohe kāpala from the raw material and begin to carve one with a design. Participant will also have a chance to stamp with actual bamboo stamps that have been already carved to experience. Taught by the high school students of Māhu'ilani, the Cultural Arts Program of Ke Kula 'O Nāwah'okalani'ōpu'u, the Hawaiian Medium Education School in Kea'au, Puna, Hawai'i. Classes taught in Hawaiian and English language.

Workshops held Wed, Thurs, Fri - 2 classes per day • 10 am - 12 pm and 2 pm - 4 pm

Supplies provided - 2 bamboo pieces – 1 raw, 1 ready to carve. Utility & carving knives will be available for use during class only. Held in the Merrie Monarch Fair demonstrators tent.

Cost: $40 per class, 2 hours a class • Registration limited to 4 participants per class.

Contact: Ha'amauliola Aiona - Project Director & Teacher • Māhu'ilani, Ke Kula 'O Nāwah'okalani'ōpu'u

Email: haa@nawahi.org • Phone: 938-1679

MOKULEHUA WORKSHOP - KALA'I AIONA

All workshops incorporate use of natural materials and resources from plants grown in Hawai'i which were cultivated and prepared to create native handcrafts that will be taught through a mixture of English and Hawaiian.

Wed - Lei Lā'i - ti-leaf lei

Thurs - Pūlumi Ni'au & Apolima Niu - Coconut midrib broom & woven coconut bracelet

Fri - Apu Niu - Coconut shell cup

Sat - Oeoe & Apolima Hau - Hau Hawaiian Whistle with Kamani Nut & Hau bracelet

No pre-registration, walk-ins welcomed. Held in the Merrie Monarch Fair demonstrators tent.

Workshops daily from 12pm to 2pm.

Cost: $5 Supply fee for all workshops

KAPA WORKSHOP - DALANI TANAHY

Learn about Hawaiian kapa print and design using ohe kapala. Print your own canvas bag. Hawaiian kapa practitioner, Dalani Tanahy will explain about Hawaiian thought and influence in this particular style of design as well as types and process of natural dyes. Space is limited to ten (10) people per class.

Classes will be held twice daily during the festival, at 11am and 2 pm.

Pre-registration recommended but walk-ins will be accepted if there is space. Held in the Merrie Monarch Fair demonstrators tent.

Cost: $12.00 including supplies

Contact: Dalani Tanahy Email: kaphawaii@gmail.com or call 808-256-5006 to register

WOOD CARVING WORKSHOP - KEONI TURALDE

Make your own poi board with master pahu carver Keoni Turlade. All supplies provided. Space is limited per workshop. Pre-registration is recommended but walk-ins will be accepted if there is space. Held in the Merrie Monarch Fair demonstrators tent.

Workshops will be held for 4 days during the festival.

Cost: $50.00 includes the wood and all supplies

Contact: Keoni Turalde for registration 498-3039